luncative Office in this Territory. And I do further swear, that I will execute the Office of Clerk of the said Superior Court for the District of without prejudice, favor, affection, or partiality, to the best of my skill and ability, so help me God. —

Sec. 3d. And be it further enacted, That in case of the death, resignation or removal from Office, of either of the Clerks of the said Court, that his successor in Office, shall take the same Oath also. And if any of the said Clerks shall have violated his Oath, or willingly, wittingly, or corruptly, have done any thing, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Oath, such Clerk shall be deemed upon conviction, guilty of misbehaviour in Office, and shall ever after be incapable of holding any Office Civil or Military. ——

Sec. 4th. And be, it further enacted, That the said Superior Courts of Law, shall be holden in and for the District of Washington, on the first Mondays of May, and September, in and for the District of Adams on the fourth Mondays of June, and October, and in and for the District of Jefferson, on the fourth Mondays in July, and November: and may be held any number of days not exceeding Eighteen days, and in case of bad weather or other cause it shall be lawful, and it is by this Act required that any one of the aforesaid Judges shall adjourn from day to day, for three days, and if two of the said Judges shall not then attend to hold the Court, that the said Court, and all suits, actions and proceedings therein, shall lay over in the same order they then are in, and shall stand adjourned to the next Court in course. ——

Sec. 5th And be it further enacted, That the said Superior Courts shall hold their sessions (untill otherwise directed by law) at the following places, to wit, In Washington District, at the place where the County Courts for Washington County shall be held, In Adams District at the place, where the County Court for Adams County, shall be held; and in Jefferson District at the place, where the County Courts for Jefferson County shall be held; and the Jails for the Counties of Washington, Adams & Jefferson, are hereby declared to be also, the Jails for the Districts to which the said Counties respectively belong.

Sec. 6th And be it further enacted, That all real actions, actions of Ejectment, trespasses, Quare clausum fregit, suits on penal statutes, and pleas of the Government, shall be commenced, in the Superior Court of the District, wherein the cause of action shall arise or the offence be committed, and not in any other District; and all actions of Debt, other than on penal statutes, all actions of Detinue and Replevin, actions of account render, Assault and battery, and for the unlawful taking of goods; all actions upon the Case, and suits for legacies, and for distributive shares of intestate Estates, shall be brought in the Superior Court of the District where both parties reside, and where the parties live in different Districts, or where the Plaintiff shall reside beyond seas, or in a different State or Government, It shall be brought to the Court of the District, where the Defendant resides; and when any action, or suit shall be brought otherwise, than is herein directed, such action or suit may be abated on the plea of the defendant.

Sec. 7th And be it further enacted, That no suit shall be originally commenced in any of the said Courts, for any debt or demand, of less nature than Two Hundred Dollars.

Sec. 8th And be it further enacted, That none of the said Courts, nor any of the proceedings therein depending, shall be discontinued by reason of the death of any of the said Judges, or by their not attending at any term, but in such cases, all pleas, causes, matters and things therein depending, shall stand Continued, and remain in the same condition in which they shall then be to the next succeeding term.

Sec: 9th And be it further enacted, That the Clerk or Attorney, Issuing process shall mark thereon, the day on which the same shall be issued, and the Sheriff or other Officer receiving the same in order to execute shall in like manner mark on each process, the day on which he shall have received it, and every Clerk, Attorney, Sheriff or other Officer, neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, in any Court of Record, having cognizance thereof, with costs, by any person who shall sue for the same.

Sec: 10th And be it further enacted, That all writs and other process (except Subpoenas for witnesses returnable immediately) shall be returned the first day of the (day of the) term, to which the same shall be returnable, and shall be executed, at least ten days before the beginning of such term, and if any original or mesne process, shall be taken out within ten days before the beginning of any term, such process shall be made returnable, to the term next succeeding that which shall commence, within ten days after taking out such process, and not otherwise; and all process made returnable, at any other term, or executed at any other time, or in any other manner, than is by this Act directed, shall be adjudged void upon the plea of the defendant; provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed, to invalidate, or vacate any process, warrant or precept, to be Issued by any of the Judges of said Courts, or any Justices of the peace, or Clerk of any Court, on any criminal prosecution, on behalf of the Government, but that the same may be issued at any time, and made returnable to any day of the term.

Sec: 11th And be it further enacted, That when any writ shall issue from any of the said Courts, whereby any Sheriff or other Officer shall be commanded to take the body of any person, or persons, to answer to any action in any of the said Courts, such Sheriff shall take Bond with two sufficient securities, in double the sum for which such person or or persons, shall be held in arrest (Executors, Administrators, and persons sued on such penal statutes, as do not expressly require bail excepted) and shall return such Bond with the writ, and in case the Sheriff shall fail, or neglect to take such bail, or the bail returned be held insufficient, on exception taken and entered, the same term to which such process shall be returnable; the Sheriff having due notice thereof, he shall be deemed and stand as Special bail, and the Plaintiff may proceed to Judgement according to the rules hereinafter prescribed.

Sec: 12th And be it further enacted, That all bail bonds, returned to any of said Courts, shall be assigned by the Sheriff returning the same, by endorsement thereon, in the following form, to wit,

I, A. B. Sheriff of do hereby assign the within obligation and condition to C. D. the plaintiff therein named, his Executors, and administrators to be sued for according to the Statute in such case made and provided, in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day of — in the year of our Lord

And every Sheriff failing to make such assignment, shall be deemed, held, and taken as Special bail, in the same manner as if no bail Bond had been taken.

Sec: 13th And be it further enacted, That when any Sheriff shall return, that he hath taken the body of any defendant, and committed him to the prison of his County (which is hereby declared to be the proper prison for such commitment) the plaintiff may enter the defendants appearance, and he shall be at liberty to plead as if such appearance had been entered by himself, and the plaintiff may proceed to Judgment as in other cases in this act directed, Nevertheless, the defendant shall not be discharged out of custody, but by putting in bail or by rule of Court.

Sec: 14. And be it further enacted, That all bail taken according to the Court to which such scire facias is returnable, shall on motion of the plaintiff, or bail, order and direct, that such principal be returned, when he or she shall be a prisoner, untill the plaintiff's Judgment and Costs shall be paid, or he, or she, otherways be discharged by due course of Law; a copy of which order being served on the keeper of such prison, before such prisoners releasement, shall be a sufficient authority for him to return such prisoner, untill such order be complied with, and shall be deemed a surrender of the principal, and a discharge of the Bail.—

Sec. 17th. And for the better ascertaining in what process shall issue, when the Sheriff shall return, that the defendant is not to be found within his County, Be it enacted, That, when the Sheriff shall make such return in any Civil action, the Plaintiff may, at his election sue out an attachment against the personal estate of such defendant, or an alias or pluries capias, returnable in the same manner as original process, and if the Sheriff shall return any goods by him attached, and the defendant shall fail to appear and plead within the time herein directed, the Plaintiff shall be entitled if in an action of debt, to final Judgment, and if in an action on the case, to an Interlocutory Judgment, and may execute a writ of enquiry the next succeeding term, and the goods so attached, if not replevied or sold, according to the rules herein after prescribed for goods taken in original attachments, shall remain in the custody of the Sheriff untill final Judgment; and then be disposed of in the same manner as goods taken by execution on a writ of Fieri Facias, and if the Judgment shall not be satisfied by the goods attached the Plaintiff may have execution for the residue.

Sec. 18th. And be it further enacted, That all writs issuing from any of the Courts of this Territory, shall run in the name of the Mississippi Territory, and bear Test, and be signed by the respective Clerks.

9th.

Sec. 19th. And be it further enacted, That, all executions, and other process in Civil causes, Issuing from any of the Courts of this Territory, shall be returnable by the Sheriff or other Officer to the first day of the term, next succeeding that, at which they bear Test, under the penalty of One Hundred Dollars, to be recovered by any person who may sue for the same.

Sec. 20th And be it further enacted, That if any Sheriff or other Officer, hath made, or shall make any, return, upon any writ of Fieri Facias or Venditioni Exponas, that he hath levied the debt, damages and costs or fees, as in such writ required, or any part thereof, and hath not, or shall not pay the same into the proper office, or to the party to whom the same is payable, or his Attorney at the return of such writ, or hath or shall return upon any writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum, or attachment for not performing a decree in Chancery for the payment of any sum of money, or other matter, that he hath taken the body, or bodies of any defendant, or defendants, and hath the same ready to satisfy, the money or other matter, in such writ mentioned, and shall actually have received the money, or other matter from the defendant or defendants, or any part thereof, or suffered him, her, or them, to escape with the consent of such Sheriff, or officer, and hath not, or shall not, pay the same into the proper Office, or to the party to whom the same is payable, or his Attorney, that then and in either of the said cases, it shall be lawful for the Creditor, at whose suit a fieri facias venditioni exponas, Capias ad satisfaciendum, or attachment hath or shall issue, upon motion made in the Court, from whence such writ issued, to demand Judgment against such Sheriff, or other officer for the money, or other matter
